01 | Lima City Tour

After a long journey, we'll be waiting for you at the Lima airport to comfortably transfer you to your hotel. In the afternoon, we'll begin a fascinating City Tour, starting with a panoramic view of Huaca Pucllana a pre-Inca ceremonial center from the 4th century, considered sacred by the Incas.

The tour continues through Lima's Historic Center, where you'll see over fifty colonial-era monuments, including the Paseo de la República, Plaza San Martín, Plaza Mayor, Government Palace, Archbishop's Palace, the Cathedral Basilica, and City Hall.

Next, we'll visit the impressive San Francisco Monastery, an icon of colonial religious art in the Americas, famous for its underground crypts known as the Catacombs.

Finally, we'll explore modern Lima with a pleasant drive through the city's most traditional and sophisticated residential areas: El Olivar in San Isidro, the vibrant district of Miraflores, and the seaside Larcomar shopping center.

Includes:

- Entrance tickets: Lima Cathedral and San Francisco Convent
- Bilingual group guide (English and Spanish)
- Tourist transportation to all mentioned sites
- Pre-departure briefing one day before the tour

02 | Paracas Huacachina

We begin the adventure at 5:00 a.m., departing from your hotel in Lima. Around 9:00 a.m., we arrive in Paracas to enjoy a seaside breakfast. Then, we board a boat to the Ballestas Islands where you will witness stunning rock formations and a rich variety of marine life including Humboldt penguins, sea lions, and guano birds. On the way, we will admire the mysterious Candelabra geoglyph whose origin still fascinates visitors.

Afterwards, we head to Ica for lunch among the vineyards at Cultour Pisco where you will savor traditional Peruvian dishes. Then, we take the Pisco Tour where you will learn about its artisanal production from grape to distillation and enjoy a tasting of its different varieties.

The day ends at the Huacachina Oasis, a natural lagoon surrounded by towering sand dunes, where you'll feel the thrill of a buggy ride and try sandboarding.

At the end of the day, we return to Lima and transfer you to your hotel for the night.

Includes:

- Entrance tickets to Paracas National Reserve and Huacachina
- Bilingual group guide in English and Spanish
- Group tourist transportation, round trip
- Speedboat to the Ballestas Islands

06 | Ollantaytambo Maras Moray

We will begin by boarding the scenic train back to Ollantaytambo. Upon arrival, we will explore its impressive archaeological complex, featuring cobblestone streets and well-preserved Inca constructions. This site was one of the main military, religious, and agricultural centers of the Inca Empire.

At midday, we will delight your palate with an authentic pachamanca in Ollantaytambo, an ancestral Andean cooking technique that combines unique flavors cooked underground. Then, we will continue the tour to Moray, a fascinating Inca agricultural laboratory consisting of circular terraces that simulate different microclimates.

The next stop will be Maras, famous for its more than 3,000 salt ponds located on the mountainside.

Finally, we will transfer you to Mountain View, where you will spend the night, surrounded by nature and tranquility, closing the day with a deep connection to the living legacy of the Andes.

Includes:

10 | Cusco - Manu Albergue

Early in the morning, we will pick you up from your hotel in Cusco to begin a fascinating journey through the Andean landscapes and picturesque villages such as Paucartambo and Ninamarca, where you will visit the chullpas, ancient tombs of the pre-Inca Lupaca culture. We will then ascend to Acjanaco, the gateway to Manu National Park, from where we begin the descent into the lush cloud forest.

This unique ecosystem is home to an extraordinary diversity of wildlife and flora, including the colorful Cock-of-the-Rock, Peru's national bird, whose courtship ritual captivates all visitors.

We continue through the Amazonian towns of Patria and Pilcopata until we reach the tourist port of Atalaya. There, we will board a motorized boat to navigate the Madre de Dios River, heading to the lodge where we will enjoy dinner and have free time to relax with refreshing drinks, before spending the night in comfortable rooms surrounded by nature.

11 | Mammal Clay Lick

After enjoying a healthy breakfast, we will begin our exploration along the trails of the tropical rainforest, where we'll encounter towering trees. This habitat is home to various groups of monkeys, along with colorful birds such as macaws, parakeets, and woodpeckers, creating an unforgettable natural spectacle.

In the afternoon, we will venture deep into the heart of the jungle toward the mammal clay lick, a special hidden corner of the Amazon. After a 35-minute walk, we'll arrive at a platform camouflaged among the trees. From here, we will observe the behavior of species such as the Amazonian tapir, deer, peccaries, and—with some luck—the majestic jaguar, the largest feline in South America.

The observation platform is equipped with mosquito nets and mats, ensuring a comfortable and safe experience. In addition, night walks are available every evening, organized by our guides, offering an even more immersive rainforest adventure.

12 | Manu Machuwasi

Very early in the morning, we will begin our journey by boat to the small clay lick, a clay wall rich in mineral salts. Here, we will witness a unique natural spectacle: parakeets, parrots, and green macaws noisily gather to consume the clay as part of their natural detoxification process.

Continuing the expedition, we'll head to Machuwasi Lagoon, a beautiful wetland. With the help of telescopes, we'll observe birds such as herons, hawks, ducks, and oropendolas, as well as capybara families—and with a bit of luck, an anaconda or boa gliding through the vegetation.

In the afternoon, there will be time to relax and enjoy the tropical waters, with safe activities like swimming and fishing. At nightfall, we'll take a walk along the river, briefly entering the forest to explore hidden lakes. Equipped with flashlights, we will begin the search for caimans, whose glowing eyes reflect in the darkness.

13 | Manu - Cusco

Very early in the morning, we return by boat to Atalaya port, and then continue by bus back to San Pedro, where we'll once again have the chance to observe the famous Andean Cock-of-the-Rock. We then continue our journey back to the ancient Inca capital, Cusco, arriving at approximately 4:00 p.m.

Includes:

- Entrance to Manu National Park
- Guided group service in English and Spanish
- Round-trip tourist transportation
- Meals (regular and vegetarian options): 4 lunches, 3 dinners, and 3 breakfasts
- 3 nights accommodation at the Lodge
- Hotel accommodation in Cusco
- Pre-trip information provided one day before the tour
