11 | Cusco - Puerto Maldonado

We'll fly from Cusco to Puerto Maldonado on a short flight of approximately one hour. Upon arrival, a brief car ride and a 45-minute boat journey along the Madre de Dios River will take you to our lodge in the Amazon rainforest.

After lunch, enjoy à la carte activities with an experienced guide, such as hikes through the Trail System, where you'll discover the incredible Amazonian biodiversity. Take in the sights of birds, exotic flora, and vibrant jungle life.

At sunset, join the "River by Night" excursion to experience the Amazon's nocturnal wildlife. Later, enjoy a delicious Amazonian dinner served in the main dining area, followed by a complimentary Pisco Sour. End your day by retreating to your private cabin, lulled to sleep by the sounds of the forest.

12 | Canopy Walkway

Start the day early with a buffet breakfast available from 5:30 a.m.

Then, set out to explore Lake Sandoval, a shimmering body of water located within the Tambopata National Reserve. Board a canoe to observe a wide variety of wildlife—from colorful birds to elusive anacondas.

Return to the lodge for lunch, and in the afternoon, enjoy the thrilling Inkaterra Canopy Walkway, a system of suspended bridges 344 meters long, offering breathtaking views from the treetops. Then continue with the Anaconda Walk, a 200-meter elevated boardwalk through a seasonally flooded forest.

End your adventurous day with a gourmet à la carte dinner.

13 | Tambopata

Embark on a 25-minute boat ride to the Gamitana Farm and Quebrada, where you will explore the rich biodiversity of the Amazon rainforest.

Discover a variety of exotic fruits and vegetables at the Gamitana Farm and take a walk along a trail to the Quebrada, home to piranhas and caimans. After lunch, cruise upriver to Inkaterra Hacienda Concepción to learn about the Amazon's botanical diversity.

Enjoy a canoe ride searching for nocturnal wildlife, and end the day with an exciting Night Forest excursion to discover the vibrant life of the rainforest after dark.
